

Websites, that should be known to you

on February 24, 2017

Hello friends,

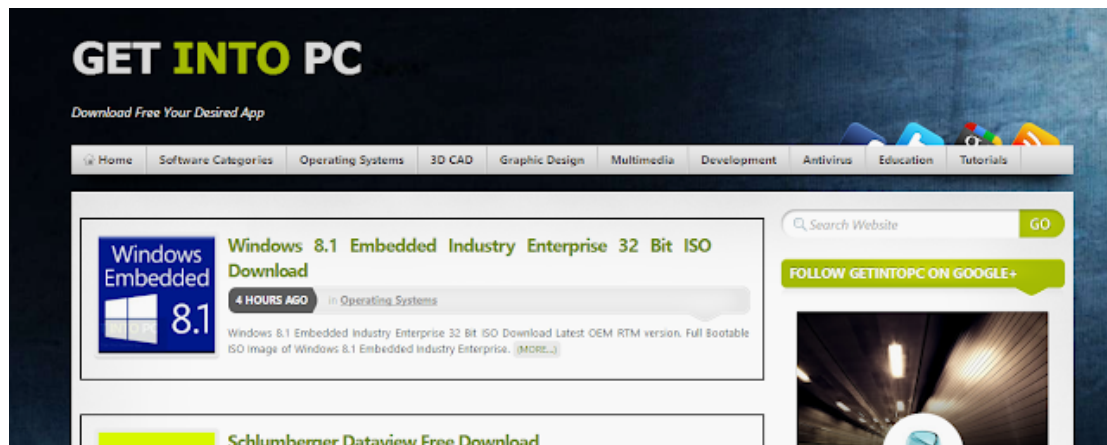

Nowadays we all are addicted to internet. Facebook, Whatsapp and all this are important parts of our life. Some people assume these technology as a distraction in study. May be they are right but this technology also give us opportunity to learn many things easily.

We all spend a lot of time on few website but there are also some useful websites which makes our life more easier. I m going to share few of them. These all websites and their features are tested by me. So don't worry i am going to tell you each and every aspect of these website. Even if you need any help regarding these websites just let me know. Just comment below. Here we go

1. tinyurl.com

This website is useful for making weblinks tiny.

This website has a huge collection of software and operating system. You can download operating system like Linux, Windows and ubuntu. Different kind of games and software are also available. Just check it once. I am sure you will find something new.

3. oceanofgames.com

Want to play some pc games and didn't know where you can find it ? Your search is over now. Just click on this link. Countless games are available in categories. Either you like racing, RPG, Shooting and so on.

If you never played any game before here are some of them, which i like most.

Max Payne

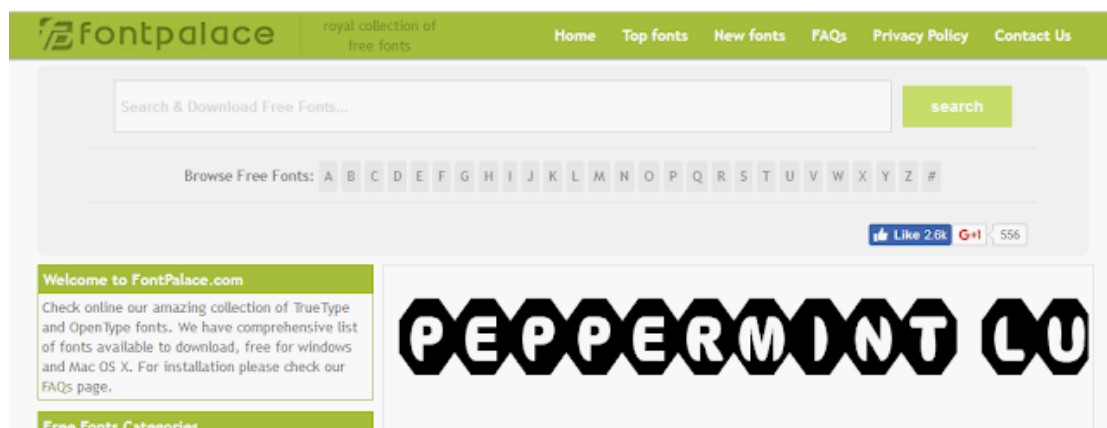

Call of duty

The screenshot shows the Ocean of Games website. At the top, there's a navigation bar with categories: Home, Action, Adventure, Arcade, Fighting, Horror, Puzzle, Racing, Shooting Games, Simulation, Sports, War, and Strategy. Below this, there's a sub-navigation bar with: Mystery, Fantasy, Sci Fi, RPG, and Survival. The main content area features two game listings. The first is 'Night in the Woods Free Download', posted 17 hours ago, categorized as Adventure. The second is 'Poltergeist Free Download', also posted 17 hours ago, categorized as Action, Simulation. On the right side, there's a search bar with the text 'Search Website' and a 'GO' button. Below the search bar, there's a banner for 'DOWNLOAD ANDROID GAMES FROM OUR OFFICIAL SITE OCEANOFAPK.COM' with an Android logo and the text 'APK'. At the bottom right, there's a 'SUPPORT US' button.

If you like to play with text and love to effect them. This website is for you. This will give you a lot of variety in fonts. The best part is many of them are free and can be download easily.

6. rajbhasha.net

This website will solve your problem of hindi typing. Because it provides so many software and their link. Even it can convert UNICODE font to krutidev. (If don't get this point, don't worry they are just font name. You can easily google them.) I m planning to make a video tutorial for this also. Because i love this feature of this website.

यूनिकोड से कृतिदेव Unicode to Kruti Dev >>

Kruti Dev OR Devlys Paste Here यहां बॉक्स में टाईप या पेस्ट करें

कृतिदेव यहां

More useful website will be added soon. Keep visit page for more updates.

Thank you.
